First Year Required Textbook List
2015-2016

Fall 2015 –

Genetics and Health BMS 6003 – Dr. Harfe
Recommended Texts:

Introduction to Clinical Medicine 1 Books: BMS 6810 – Dr. Cooke

Required Texts:

Recommended textbooks:

It is suggested that students also have a medical dictionary.

FOUNDATIONS OF MEDICINE Books: BMS 6031 – Dr. Aris

Required textbooks:

Community Physician Preceptorship: MDC 6001 – Dr. Rubin

Health Outcomes and Policy 2 – BMS 6092 – Dr. Herndon
There is no text book for this course

Nutrition and Health – BMS 6751 – Dr. Carter
There is no text book for this course

Spring 2016 –

Health Outcomes and Policy 1 – BMS 6091
There is no textbook for this course.

Fundamentals of Microbiology and Immunology - BMS 6300
Required textbooks:
NOTE: Older editions of these textbooks should not be used: there are substantial differences between the most recent editions of these textbooks and previous editions. The student must ask themselves: “Would I ever knowingly treat a patient based upon information that is outdated?”

Introduction to Clinical Medicine 2 Books: BMS 6812 – Dr. Cooke
Required Texts:

Updated 2/27/2015
Introduction to Cancer Biology & Clinical Oncology – BMS 6816 – Dr. Lynch

Recommended Text:
Cancer: Principles and Practice of Oncology. Primer of the Molecular Biology of Cancer:

The Cardiovascular Systems – BMS 6633 – Dr. Winter

Required textbooks:
NOTE: Older editions of these textbooks should not be used: there are substantial differences between the most recent editions of these textbooks and previous editions. The student must ask themselves: “Would I ever knowingly treat a patient based upon information that is outdated?”

The Respiratory Systems – BMS 6642 – Dr. Sayeski

Required textbooks:
NOTE: Older editions of these textbooks should not be used: there are substantial differences between the most recent editions of these textbooks and previous editions. The student must ask themselves: “Would I ever knowingly treat a patient based upon information that is outdated?”
Summer 2016 –
The Kidney and Urinary Tract – BMS 6638C – Dr. Winter
Required textbooks:

NOTE: Older editions of these textbooks should not be used: there are substantial differences between the most recent editions of these textbooks and previous editions. The student must ask themselves: “Would I ever knowingly treat a patient based upon information that is outdated?”

Community Physician Preceptorship: MDC 6001 – Dr. Rubin